DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Perlman et al. (6,141,693).

Regarding claim 1, Perlman discloses an ascertaining step (col. 9, lines 36-54, and col. 11, lines 54-67), a client device 820 which inherently includes a video memory or buffer for buffering the processed video data (col. 8, lines 18-25), and a displaying step 830.

Regarding claim 2, the client device 610 or 710 inherently includes a parser for parsing the auxiliary data and the video data. The x and y coordinates of the auxiliary data meets the markers as claimed.

Regarding claim 3, since the data are formatted in packets, it inherently includes headers which include auxiliary data.

Regarding claim 4, see col. 8, lines 35-54.

Regarding claim 5, see col. 11, line 54-67.

Regarding claim 6, see col. 11, lines 44-53.

Regarding claim 7, the inherently included video memory buffers the video rows which are not cropped.

Regarding claims 8-31, in addition of above, Perlman further shows an adding step (501, 605, 705), and a transmitting step (709).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
